

This is a draft

it describes a woven structure

every column represents a vertical yarn (warp) every row represents one or more horizontal yarns (wefts)

a black square represents a warp travel OVER a weft

a white square represents a warp traveling UNDER a weft

so this is the resulting structure of that draft (with two yarns thrown at each weft)

